PROXY STATEMENT
FOR
ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS
TO BE HELD JULY 18, 2002
-----

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of the Company of proxies from the holders of record of the common stock, par value $.01 per share ("Common Stock"), at the close of business on May 30, 2002, for use at the Annual Meeting to be held at 10:00 a.m., CST, on July 18, 2002, and any adjournment thereof. This Proxy Statement, the attached proxy and the Company's Annual Report for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2002 are being mailed together on or about June 12, 2002, to shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. The principal executive office of the Company is 44000 Highway 75 South, Huntsville, Texas 77340.

Properly executed proxies will be voted as directed. If no direction is indicated therein, proxies received in response to this solicitation will be voted FOR: (i) the election of the six nominees for director; (ii) the ratification of the indicated independent auditors; and (iii) as recommended by the Board of Directors with regard to any other matters, or if no recommendation is given, in their own discretion.

A proxy on the enclosed form may be revoked by the shareholder at any time before it is voted by filing with the Secretary of the Company a written revocation, by voting in person at the meeting, or by delivering a proxy bearing a later date. Attendance at the Annual Meeting will not, in itself, constitute revocation of the proxy.

The Company will bear all costs of this Proxy Statement and the proxy and the cost of soliciting proxies relating to the Annual Meeting. It is anticipated that the solicitation of proxies for the Annual Meeting will be made only by use of the mails and will cost approximately $9,000. However, the Company may use the services of its directors, officers and employees to solicit proxies personally or by telephone, without additional salary or compensation to them. The Company will request that the brokerage houses, custodians, nominees, and fiduciaries forward the proxy soliciting materials to the beneficial owners of the Company's shares held of record for such persons, and the Company will reimburse such persons for their related reasonable out-of-pocket expenses.

VOTING OF SECURITIES

At the close of business on May 30, 2002, the record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting, there were 8,750,601 issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock, each of which is entitled to one vote. Common Stock is the only class of outstanding securities of the Company entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting.

The Company's Bylaws provide that the presence, either in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Assuming such a majority is present, the election of directors will require a plurality of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting. The ratification of the selected independent auditors will require the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares entitled to vote and that voted or abstained at the Annual Meeting. Abstentions from and broker non-votes on the proposal to elect directors will be counted for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum, but will not be included in the total shares voted for or against any nominee. A broker non-vote occurs if a broker or other nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner does not vote on a proposal because he does not have discretionary authority to vote shares and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner with respect to such proposal. Thus, abstentions from the proposals will have the same legal effect as a vote against the proposals, but a broker non-vote will not be counted for purposes of determining whether a majority is achieved.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT. The initial term of Billy F. Mitcham, Jr.'s employment agreement with the Company, which began on January 15, 1997, was for a period of five years. However, the term of the agreement is automatically extended for successive one-year periods unless either party gives written notice of termination at least 30 days prior to the end of the current extension period. The Employment Agreement provides for an annual salary and a bonus at the discretion of the Board of Directors. The employment agreement may be terminated prior to the end of any extension period if Mr. Mitcham dies; if it is determined that Mr. Mitcham has become disabled (as defined); if Mr. Mitcham gives three months prior notice of resignation; if the Company gives Mr. Mitcham notice of termination "without cause"; or if the Board of Directors determines that Mr. Mitcham has breached the agreement in any material respect, has appropriated a material business opportunity of the Company or has engaged in fraud or dishonesty with respect to the Company's business or is convicted of or indicted for any felony criminal offense or any crime punishable by imprisonment. If Mr. Mitcham terminates his employment within 60 days following (i) a material reduction in his duties and responsibilities (without his consent) or (ii) a reduction in, or failure by the Company to pay when due, any portion of his salary, he will be entitled to payments equal to $450,000, payable ratably over the 24 months following such termination. For a period of two years after the termination of his employment agreement, Mr. Mitcham is prohibited from engaging in any business activities which are competitive with the Company's business and from diverting any of the Company's customers to a competitor. The Company has no employment agreements with any of its other executive officers.

CHANGE OF CONTROL AND TERMINATION AGREEMENTS. In February 1999, the Company entered into severance and change of control agreements with Messrs. Sheppard and Dupuis. Under the terms of those agreements, if a covered executive officer's employment terminates during the 24-month period after a "change of control" of the Company (as defined in the agreements) (such period, the "Protection Period") other than the officer's voluntary resignation (except as stated below) or retirement or a termination of employment for "cause" (as defined in the agreements) or by reason of death or disability, the officer will be entitled to receive certain severance payments and other benefits. The officer's voluntary resignation for "good reason" (as defined in the agreements) will also entitle the officer to the severance benefits and other benefits. The severance payment amount, payable monthly over the 24 months after termination, will be equal to two times such officer's annual base salary on the effective date of the change of control or the date of the termination of employment. In addition, the officer under those circumstances will be entitled to receive continued medical and dental coverage under the Company's applicable plans (to the extent permitted by law or by the plan carriers) for the period of time remaining in the Protection Period after his termination is effective, or until the officer becomes eligible to obtain comparable coverage from a subsequent employer. In addition, any stock options and restricted stock that have not fully vested shall accelerate and immediately become fully vested. The initial term of the two agreements was through December 31, 2001, and is automatically extended for successive one-year periods absent prior written notice from the Company that it is terminating the agreements.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION. The Company's executive compensation program is designed to attract, motivate and retain talented management personnel and to reward management for the Company's successful financial performance and for increasing shareholder value. The Company's executive compensation has three components: base salaries, annual performance bonuses and long-term incentive stock-based awards.

BASE SALARIES. We determine the salary ranges for the Company's executive officers based upon their responsibilities and the salary levels of similarly positioned officers in comparable companies. Our philosophy has been to establish base salaries in the median-to-low end of the range of such salaries at comparable companies, because long-term stock-based compensation is considered more important than annual base salaries in aligning the executive's financial rewards to the shareholders' financial interests for the long term. For fiscal 2002, the executive officers received salary increases ranging from approximately 8 - 15%.

ANNUAL PERFORMANCE BONUSES. Annual bonuses are awarded on a discretionary basis. In making our determination of whether to award an annual bonus and the amount of the bonus, we consider several factors, including financial performance of the Company in relation to planned expectations and performance of the Company in relation to industry conditions, each executive officer's performance, level of responsibility or duties, successful completion of particular projects or acquisition and implementation of new technical knowledge. In fiscal 2002, we awarded cash bonuses to the Company's executive officers ranging from approximately 4 - 10% of their base salaries.

LONG-TERM STOCK-BASED COMPENSATION. We believe that a substantial percentage of executive compensation should be tied to equity-based plans and thereby directly related to improvement in shareholder value over the long term. In determining the number of options to grant, we make a subjective determination based on the same factors as we do in determining bonuses. For fiscal 2002, we approved the grant to executive officers of the options shown in the Summary Compensation Table for that fiscal year, with a three-year vesting period.

CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS AND RELATIONSHIPS

Effective September 20, 1993, the Company and Billy F. Mitcham, Jr. entered into a Voting Agreement (the "Voting Agreement") with Billy F. Mitcham, Sr., Paul C. Mitcham and two trusts established for the benefit of Mr. Mitcham, Jr.'s sons. Under the Voting Agreement, the holders of shares subject thereto have agreed that Mr. Mitcham, Jr. has the authority to vote an additional 214,564 shares, or 2.5%, of the Company's outstanding Common Stock. Mr. Mitcham, Jr. had voting control of an aggregate of 676,480 shares, or 7.6%, of the Company's Common Stock, as of May 30, 2002. The Voting Agreement will terminate on the earlier of the agreement of the parties, the transfer by the parties thereto of their shares or the expiration of 25 years. See "Principal Holders of Securities and Security Ownership of Management."

In June 2001, the Company entered into an agreement with Bear Ridge Capital, L.L.C. ("BRC"), under which it engaged BRC to assist the Company in arranging a private placement of up to $25 million of the Company's debt or equity securities. Mr. Peter H. Blum, one of the Company's directors, is the sole member of BRC. As consideration for the services BRC was to perform, the Company paid BRC a nonrefundable retainer of $57,000, $42,000 of which was creditable against compensation due to BRC on the consummation of a private placement transaction, and issued BRC warrants to purchase 20,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock at an exercise price of $5.00 per share. Upon the consummation of a private placement transaction, BRC was entitled to compensation equal to 2.5% of the gross proceeds of the transaction. As of May 30, 2002, due to the anti-dilution provisions contained in the warrants, BRC is entitled to purchase up to 22,624 shares of the Company's Common Stock at an exercise price of $4.42 per share. See "Principal Holders of Securities and Security Ownership of Management."
